Sounds good

Staff put Phil back in 31, kept 47 and 5 LD.

I'll be interested in seeing it. A far more competitive 47th needs to be part of the 14th conversation, and that will inevitably eat into the 5th numbers. We'll have a new map this evening or tomorrow morning, and then we can keep talking tomorrow. Should we book time on the calendar for Friday and then through the weekend? I've cleared everything off other than church Sunday from 10-11:30, when my youngest son is being dedicated (great timing, I know, but a good reminder of the higher things).

Looking forward to your proposal, we have time scheduled tomorrow at 1. I'm free through the weekend with the exception of 10am on Friday and Sunday before noon. Dedicating your son is a blessing, thanks for the reminder that there are higher things!
